

Business in Australia & New Zealand

In today's business world, a global perspective is becoming essential and something employers are increasingly seeking in new employees they hire. Australia and New Zealand are uniquely positioned in the booming Asia-Pacific region to give students the edge they need in today's environment. Studying business and related subjects at the universities in these countries is one of the greatest experiences you can have during your college career. From economics and finance to marketing and advertising, from international business to management, state-of-the-art facilities, world-class faculty and universities renowned the world over will nicely complement the education you receive at your home university. In addition, you can gain valuable work experience through a variety of full-time internships with companies and organizations in Australia—another way to give you the background that employers are seeking today.

Graduate School in Australia or New Zealand

Earn your entire graduate degree abroad at any of AustraLearn’s member universities. Complete your master’s degree in as little as one year or even a Ph.D. in three. Universities in Australia and New Zealand are well-respected and all provide high quality, internationally recognized degree programs. The GRE exam is NOT required; you can get U.S. government financial aid; and costs are, in many cases, cheaper than graduate-degree programs in the United States.

AustraLearn provides program and enrollment counseling as well as a range of other services (financial aid, student visa, airline tickets, accommodation, etc.) to assist you with not only applying to universities abroad, but to actually get there. There is NO CHARGE for our full degree services as AustraLearn is supported by the Australian and New Zealand universities.

To search for a university offering your preferred degree program, go to www.australearn.org/degresearch. For more information, visit www.australearn.org/fulldegree.

Internship Programs

International internships are an invaluable opportunity for you to expand your resume and immerse yourself in the local culture. AustraLearn offers full-time, unpaid, 10-week internships located in Australia, which are available during the summer, fall, or spring. You’ll earn six academic credits from Chapman University upon completion of this program.

Business internships provide the opportunity to participate in a variety of real-world projects and tasks in the following areas:

- Event Management
- Finance
- Hospitality Management
- Marketing

Custom designed placements are also available. Visit www.australearn.org/internships for full placements descriptions and more available internships.

Semester-long study-internship combination programs are also available at some universities.
