James Cook University is offering 4 scholarships to degree-seeking students lodging applications exclusively through GlobaLinks Learning Abroad. These scholarships are made available to students commencing degree programs in semester 2 (July), 2012 only. The value of each scholarship is $1500 AUD. Recipients of the awards will have the monies applied directly to their university account.

Eligible candidates include the following:

- US or Canadian residents who have applied to James Cook University via GlobaLinks
- Applicants applying to undergraduate or postgraduate studies, in any academic area
- Applicants applying to coursework or research degree programs
- A cumulative GPA from previous studies (i.e. high school/secondary school, Bachelor, or Masters degree) of 2.8/4.0 or 70%.
- Correctly complete the scholarship application, including essays and original signature.

All February July scholarship applications must be received within the GlobaLinks office on or before Friday, May 31, 2012. A complete scholarship application includes the following: application form with an original signature under the declaration and four essay responses, provided on four separate sheets of paper.

Question 1: (½ Page Maximum) On a separate sheet, provide a narrative that explains your financial need. Include expected income and expenses for the period that you will be studying at James Cook University and reasons why you may have any unmet need. You may also make note of any scholarships, grants, or loans that have been awarded to you or any other source for the period of time that you will be studying at James Cook University

Question 2: (1 Page Maximum) On a separate sheet, describe your recent work and study history, any extracurricular activities you are involved with such as clubs, volunteer or sports. Include any academic or employment awards you have received.

Question 3: (½ Page Maximum) On a separate sheet, describe why you chose to study at James Cook University.

Question 4: (½ Page Maximum) On a separate sheet, describe your educational and vocational career plans and how this experience will affect your future career. You might also consider how your experience abroad will personally impact you.

I hereby understand that all James Cook University/Globalinks Learning Abroad scholarship awards are determined by a scholarship selection committee and that disbursement dates are determined by James Cook University. I am aware that other financial aid currently available to me through non-Globalinks sources may be adjusted based upon the receipt of a scholarship from JCU/GlobaLinks. Should I be awarded the scholarship and later choose to withdraw from the university, I understand that I am responsible for returning these monies to James Cook University.

The information contained in this application is true and correct, to the best of my knowledge, and I hereby agree to forfeit any award in its entirety if the information is discovered to be incorrect.
